

A LEGACY OF LEADERSHIP AND GENEROSITY

In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln designated the Medal of Honor as our nation's highest military recognition for valor in combat. Since that time, the Medal of Honor has been earned by 3,517 recipients over its 160-year history—adding not only to Lincoln's legacy but also to the legacy of the “ordinary” Americans who went on to achieve the extraordinary, of whom continue to inspire us to go “above and beyond” from our corner of the world.

HELP US INSPIRE AMERICA

This important project is made possible due to the generosity of grateful and patriotic Americans who support the Museum's mission to commemorate the stories of Medal of Honor recipients, unite Americans with what it means to lead with character, and inspire the hero within us all. Through our Donor Circles, we aim to recognize those who support construction, programmatic development, and our mission at the highest of philanthropic levels.
